North Dakota Critical Access Hospital Finance Webinars

Two learning opportunities for CAH facilities. No registration fees. Webinars are supported by the North Dakota Flex Program.

Translating Critical Access Hospital Finance - May 15, 2014

- Presenter: Ralph Llewellyn of Eide Bailly
- Description: Healthcare finance is complicated. This is a statement for even experienced financial professionals. Departmental leaders in Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs) are called upon to provide technical as well as financial leadership in their departments. Unfortunately, they are not provided the tools necessary to understand reimbursement theory and provide financial leadership in their departments. This session will provide a basic level understanding of how healthcare finance and reimbursement works. The session will focus on reimbursement theory of various payors and strategies departmental leaders can adopt to improve financial performance in their departments.
- Target Audience: CAH department leaders and board members.
- Two time options: 10:00 to 11:30 am Central Time or 2:30 to 4:00 pm Central Time
- Teleconference Information (You must dial in for the audio portion of the webinar):
Phone Number: 1-866-905-2610 • Access Code: 8316991989

Managing Productivity in the Critical Access Hospital - May 22, 2014

- Presenter: Ralph Llewellyn of Eide Bailly
- Description: Managing productivity in the healthcare setting is an ongoing challenge. Obtaining meaningful benchmarks can be challenging and cost prohibitive. This session is designed for all departmental leaders and will focus on how to manage the productivity of your organization using both internally and externally developed benchmarks. We will explore the need to analyze processes when implementing change versus just working harder.
- Target Audience: CAH department leaders and board members.
- Two time options: 10:00 to 11:30 am Central Time or 2:30 to 4:00 pm Central Time
