North Dakota Critical Access Hospitals

History

Linton Hospital was opened in 1953, by the seven Sisters of St. Francis of Tiffin, Ohio. The sisters managed the hospital until an administrator was hired in 1962. In 1967 the attached clinic was constructed. In 1975 an addition was added and the hospital was remodeled. In 2015 and 2016 the hospital nurse’s station and the clinic and hospital waiting rooms were remodeled.

Today the Linton Hospital employs over 90 people. The hospital also has three affiliated clinics, which offer a wide variety of medical services to the residents of Emmons County, North Dakota and Campbell County, South Dakota.

Recreation

Linton is in south central North Dakota. The economy is based on agricultural and related activities. The Linton school system offers K-12 and Pre-K education for students. Fishing, boating, swimming and camping facilities are available on the Missouri River within a short drive of Linton. Other available facilities include tennis courts, a golf course, swimming pool, baseball/softball diamonds, cross country skiing, snowmobiling and hunting.
