

Building Capacity for Healthcare Collaboration in Community

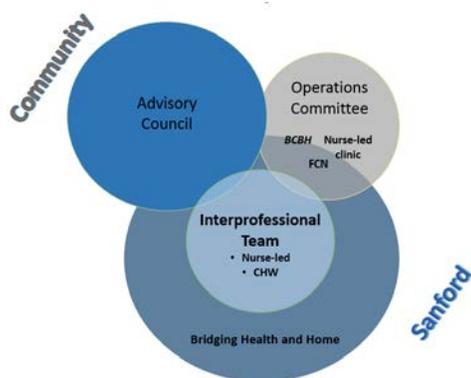

Tackling Chronic Conditions when Resources are Scarce

Dakota Conference on Rural and Public Health
June 13, 2019

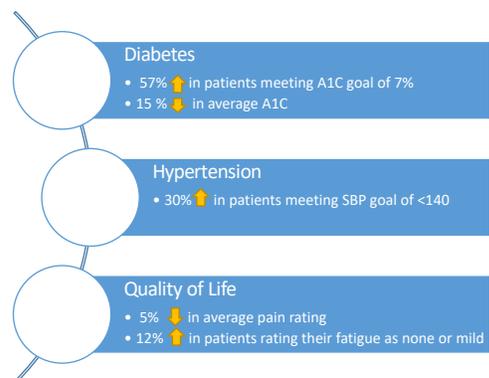

SANFORD
HEALTH

Bridging Health and Home - Mayville

Model of Care

Outcomes

Mayville, ND

Example Art of Hosting Questions

Check-in	Check-out
What are you most proud of, or what is the greatest strength of this community?	What is one thing that you can take away from our meeting today?
As you imagine our success together, what would it look like for you?	As we move forward in our work, what will we need to make this successful in the community?
What are the most important questions that the community will have about _____?	What is the best way to get the word out?
What is on your mind regarding communication strategies since our last conversation with one another?	What has not been said or shared up to this point that is important to this work?
Give one example of buzz that you have created in the community about this program since we last met	What would it take to create an event such as the _____ that a person won't want to miss it?
What are you hearing about in the community regarding the opening of the _____?	What will I do to continue to build energy for the opening day?
What is one happening that has filled your bucket since opening day?	What needs our attention moving forward?
What needs our attention today?	What would you like to be shared about this program?
What additional thoughts have emerged in regards to getting the word out?	Where should we focus our energy next?
As we think about the New Year, share one thing that you are most proud of regarding our work with the _____?	With New Year's resolutions on our mind, What are each of you willing to commit to in the program this year?
When we think about growing partnerships and in communities, what are we learning?	People's Choice: What is on your mind at the end of today's meeting?
What adjectives do you think of when you hear the word "sustainability"?	Share one enhanced understanding of sustainability