

GRE Prep Course

- Understand the basic format of the GRE
- Learn how to study for each section of the exam
- Review content and practice questions/pre-tests
- Learn strategic time management and study approaches to enhance your score
- Targeted individualized help and tutoring
- Learn about graduate programs, application processes, and CV writing
- Instruction by highly experienced University GRE Prep Course Instructors

Schedule

- Classes run June 12–16th from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm

Program covers cost of

- Attendance
- Instruction
- Supplies
- Travel to and from program (some exclusions apply)
- Stipend to cover cost of housing, dining, and supplies the week of prep course

Application

- Students must be in their junior or senior year of undergraduate school or have graduated with an undergraduate or Master's degree in a behavioral health related field such as Counseling, Psychology, Clinical Counseling, Clinical Psychology, in a post-bacc program, or applying for graduate programs in these same fields in the United States.
- Must be American Indian, Alaska Native, or Native Hawaiian (limited spots available).
- Application form along with two academic or career related reference letters, official college transcripts, and a short Career Goal Statement, are due no later than April 15th.
- Applications can be found online at:
ruralhealth.und.edu/projects/coe-in-native-behavioral-health/gre-prep

Send applications to:

Naomi M. Bender, SGCoE Senior Project Coordinator
University of North Dakota
School of Medicine & Health Sciences, Suite E231
1301 N. Columbia Road, Stop 9037
naomi.bender@med.und.edu • 701.777.0786

Seven Generations
Center of Excellence in Native Behavioral Health