New Mini-Series!

Best Practices in Adoption of Telehealth: COVID-19 and Beyond

Open to all primary and ambulatory healthcare workers around the globe using or planning on using electronic information and telecommunication technologies to support and promote long-distance clinical healthcare and patient education.

Panelists

Joseph C. Kvedar, MD; VP, Partners in Health
John D. Scott, MD, MSc, FIDSA; Medical Director, UW Digital Health
Kristin Sohl, MD, FAAP; Executive Director, ECHO Autism

Session Dates:
Monday, May 18, 2020
Wednesday, May 27, 2020
Monday, June 1, 2020

Time: 08:00 – 09:30 am MDT

Register Here

You will need to pre-register for each weekly session separately.
Please make sure you select the correct date for the session you would like to attend.
Upon completing the registration form, a unique Zoom link for each session will be sent out.

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™
Mini-Series Topics

Facilitators
Sanjeev Arora, MD, Director Project ECHO
Matthew Bouchonville, MD, Associate Director Project ECHO

Panelists

Joseph Kvedar, MD
Christian Ramers, MD, MPH, AAHIVS
John Scott, MD, MSc, FIDSA
Kristin Sohl, MD, FAAP

Session 1: Monday, May 18, 2020
Ideal Integration of Telehealth into the New Normal
Speaker: Dr. Joseph C. Kvedar

Session 2: Wednesday, May 27, 2020
Virtual Visits – Maximizing the Experience
Speaker: Dr. Kristin Sohl

Session 3: Monday, June 1, 2020
Telehealth Technology, Privacy and Payment Policy
Speaker: Dr. John D. Scott

This series has been created with the generous philanthropic support of the Bristol Myers Squibb Foundation

Contact us at:
TeleHealthECHO@salud.unm.edu