

OUTSTANDING RURAL HEALTH VOLUNTEER

FRED STERN

LUCY BOY

The beautiful Angus Bull who now graces the wall above you led a long and happy life on the VanDyke Angus Ranch just west of here. Lucy Boy had a reputation of producing beautiful cows, and he did, thousands of them.

Thanks to the artistry of Belgrade taxidermist, Jerry Andres you can still see the glint in his eye.

He is a perfect example of the world's finest beef grown by the world's best cowmen, right here in the Gallatin Valley!

Many thanks to Clarence and Marian VanDyke for allowing us to put Lucy Boy and the pictures of Clarence on our wall. Two great tamples of what Montana is all about!

