Learn a Word!

Join's (say: Joynts) - joints are the places in your body where bones meet. You have big ones - like in your hips and tiny ones - like in your hands and feet.

How many footballs, basketballs, soccer balls and volleyballs are there?

Health Careers

Athletic Trainer

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Athletic trainers work with the athletes to care for them and keep them from getting hurt. They care for scrapes, broken bones, and even help athletes stay in shape.

For more information visit:
ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Physical Therapist

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Physical therapists help people who are hurt when they have things like a broken arm, a twisted ankle, or a hurt back. They show people how to lift weights or jump rope or throw heavy balls to help them get better.

For more information visit:

ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Learn a Word: RX (say: R X) - this is short for the prescription. A prescription is a doctor writing a prescription for someone. When you pick up your medicine at a pharmacy, the label will tell you how much and how often you should take it. When you buy medicine to give you, you need to know the kind of medicine to give you, when you buy a medicine for a patient at a pharmacy.

Pills in Each Group: Count the number of pills.

Pharmacist

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Pharmacists are doctors who give people medicine if they are sick to make them feel better. They mix things to make medicine. They tell people how much to take, when to take it, and what the medicine will do for them.

For more information visit:

ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Pediatrician

What do you want to be when you grow up?

A pediatrician is a doctor who helps kids and babies feel better when they are sick. They give them check-ups to make sure that they are healthy. They can also give kids medicine to help them feel better.

For more information visit:
ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Learn a Word!

Paramedic

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Paramedics drive people who are sick to the hospital. They take care of them until they are in the care of the doctors at the hospital.

For more information visit:

ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Health Careers

Optometrist

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Optometrists are doctors who help people keep their eyes healthy. They give people check-ups, order glasses, and fix problems the patient has with their eyes. They check the patients eye’s for color, shape, and visual problems by using charts, tables, and tools.

For more information visit:

ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Health Careers

Occupational Therapist

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Occupational therapists help people with daily living skills such as bathing, eating, and dressing. They help people become stronger and be able to do tasks on their own.

For more information visit:

ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Are you ready?

After your cut has healed:
- Stitches usually have to be removed.
- Get the so-called，“no head, no head, properly.”
- Stitching holds the edges of your skin together.
- Suture (any “soo-chew” - this is the word.

Learn a word.

Match the word to the picture.

Nurse

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Nurses help doctors take care of people who are sick. They check patients before doctors see them. They may check the patient’s heartbeat, throat, ears, or bones.

For more information visit:
ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce

Health Careers

Center for Rural Health
The University of North Dakota
School of Medicine & Health Sciences
Learn a Word: Doctor

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Doctors help people when they are sick or aren’t feeling well. They can give people medicine to make them feel better. They give people check-ups to keep them healthy.

For more information visit: ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Learn a Word!

Dietitian

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Dietitians are people who study the food people eat and ways to keep people healthy. They try to get people to eat healthy foods such as vegetables, fruits, bread, and meat.

For more information visit:
ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Dentist

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Dentists are people who keep people’s teeth healthy. They clean, brush, and floss people’s teeth to prevent holes. They want people to brush and floss their teeth everyday to keep them healthy.

For more information visit:
ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Cardiovascular Technologist

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Cardiovascular technologists help doctors identify and treat heart and blood vessel problems. They conduct tests on the heart that measure its rate, sound of the valves, and how the systems is working.

For more information visit:
ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce
Health Careers

Radiology Technician

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Radiology technicians take x-rays of people’s bodies. The x-ray pictures let the doctor see inside the body. They look at the pictures to see if anything is broken or not working right.

For more information visit:

ruralhealth.und.edu/workforce