The Heroes Project

We are seeking nominations for individuals who you feel have impacted the lives of Native elders in your communities and nationally.

The project seeks to honor individuals who have dedicated their time, talent, and energy to help our Native elders, to solve local problems, share cultural traditions, and build stronger communities.

This project was developed by the late Dr. Alan Allery as a way to recognize elders and those who serve elders nationally.

Eligibility
Any individual in your community or across the continental U.S., Alaska, or Hawaii is eligible to be nominated.

Separate nominations may be submitted for as many different individuals as desired.

General Info:
Nominees who are selected will have their stories published in AoA literature, and on the NRCNAA website and will receive a plaque.

The Heroes Project is a project developed by the National Resource Center on Native American Aging at the University of North Dakota, and the Administration on Aging. We are looking for your hometown heroes.

How to Nominate:
Complete this brochure – this side and the questions on the reverse, or go online and complete the form at: www.nrcnaa.org.

E-mail or mail your this information and a photo (preferably a digital photo) to Ann Miller by September 30, 2008 (her address listed is on the reverse).

Selected honorees will be contacted individually after their selection in October, 2008.
